

2nd Grade Unseen Passage

What is the history of Dasara?

Lord Ram on this day fought against the evil Ravan's forces. On this mission Lord Ram's brother Laxman and Hanuman who led the monkey army, faced the fierce war against the evil. The evil side was led by Ravana, and after a cruel battle, lord Ram became victorious on the 10th day. That is the reason this tenth day is celebrated as the Dasara or Dussehra. Every year this day is marked by the burning of Ravana's effigy, which means the evil shall be burnt and the good shall be dominated to become a good person.
